Linda Jaeger

To the Much-Appreciated and Loyal Women of UWF,

Here we are at the beginning of November, a month that reminds us to express our gratitude to the people who make a difference in our lives. Election Day, Veteran's Day, World Kindness Day and Thanksgiving Day are only some of the highlights of the month that direct our awareness to the good in the world and the simple joys of life that help bring us inner peace and happiness.

As members of UWF, we express our gratitude for our many blessings by sharing our knowledge, talents, and endeavors. We support one another and seek to provide for the growth of young women in Flagler County. The words of Theodore Roosevelt come to mind: "Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected from us, and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds."

The UWF Board has made a commitment to maintain the standards and mission of the University Women of Flagler even as we adapt to life with COVID-19. We have much to be thankful for – the ability to come together and share a smile, the opportunity to support members of our community, and the freedom to choose how we view the world.

Throughout this issue of The Wave, you will glean information about our activities. Consider joining one of our Interest Groups – the Bookminders and the Discussion Group (Seeking Insights for Solutions aka SIS) which meet by Zoom — are wonderful opportunities to challenge ourselves and stay connected. And, to bring us a smidgeon of in-person gatherings, Chez Jacqueline will open its doors on November 17th and December 3rd for intimate shopping experiences (limit of 10 shoppers per evening). In addition, the Lunch Bunch is putting together a BYOP (Bring Your Own Picnic) that is open to all UWF members on November 20th.

Personally, I want to thank all the members of UWF who have been joining us via Zoom for our monthly meetings, Bookminders, and SIS. It is wonderful to see how many members are engaged in UWF activities and participating in our fundraising efforts (Belk Charity Sale, Wreaths Across America, Holiday Cash Raffle, ShopWithScrip and a shopping expedition at Chez Jacqueline). Even though we are still maintaining physical distancing, we have shared a camaraderie and opened ourselves to new experiences and to new approaches to achieve our goals.

With sincere appreciation, I express my gratitude to you for allowing me to serve as your President.

'Innovations and the Future of the Flagler County Library System'

Books in quarantine! Curbside pick-up! Browse at your own risk!

Not what you think of when referring to a library. But, then again, did you ever think of being quarantined in your home for months while coping with COVID? Since the start of mandatory closures Holly and her staff had to be creative. Hence, going to the library for a book took on a whole new meaning.

Holly has been the Flagler County Public Library Director since 2006 and recently added Legislative Liaison to her job duties. She earned a Master of Library and Information Science and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Rhode Island. She has worked in libraries for more than 30 years.

We take the public library for granted. Please join us to hear what the Flagler County Library has to offer! We would love to see you on Zoom.

If any member has a question that you would like me to ask Holly just send me an email:

suzannetimko44@gmail.com or text message at 386-503-0680

New Interest Group: Seeking Insights for Solutions

Over the summer, a new Interest Group was created by Joanne Mason, Gina Barclay-McLaughlin and Trish LeNet. It's now called Seeking Insights for Solutions (or SIS) and now has a membership of twenty-nine members, including a few new members!

We are currently focused on race and equality, by conducting cross-racial interviews and doing research in the areas of health, education, housing, economy/employment, and criminal justice.

Members will donate $10 per year to the scholarship fund. If you would like to join us, please contact Trish LeNet (nwtrish@yahoo.com) or join us at the next Zoom meeting on Tuesday, November 10th at 12noon. Contact Joanne Mason or Trish LeNet if you would like to attend. Zoom Meetings in November: 12 Noon on Tuesday, November 10th.

Wreaths Across America

Every year the Wreaths Across America organization places holiday wreaths on the grave sites of every veteran buried in a National Cemetery. The wreaths are donated by individuals like yourselves who want to support our military veterans.

We have set up our UWF chapter up as a fundraising group with WAA. For every $15.00 wreath purchased by our members, their families and friends, we will have $5.00 returned to us. This is a simple fundraiser that supports our scholarship fund and allows us to do something good for our community. We will be supporting the National Cemetery in Jacksonville, where they will need 12,000 wreaths this year.

In September, we sent out detailed instructions to everyone, including tally sheets, copies of receipts (this is a tax-deductible donation), and a letter to send to friends and family. Everything was a Word or PDF format. If you didn't get the mailing or need more information, please contact Stephanie at her email or by phone: 386-864-8880.

This is an excellent opportunity for you to honor our veterans and benefit our chapter. Thank you for your support of this worthwhile project.

Stephanie Rast
Wreaths Across America Fundraising Chair

TURN YOUR SHOPPING LIST INTO EARNINGS FOR UWF WITH SCRIP GIFT CARDS

Buy them for Holiday Shopping, Birthdays and Everyday Spending

We're happy to report that we've already made over $250 for the Scholarship Fund in the first month of operation. And we're sure that there are more orders to come as our members hear about this program from very happy card recipients! One member's sister ordered a year's supply of wine from her favorite winery—for a convent! Yes, you can buy almost anything with these very easy-to-buy, easy-to-use cards!

As a new fundraiser, UWF is selling "Scrip Gift Cards"! These are gift cards with specific dollar amounts for a variety of stores – over 700 to choose from. The more you buy, the more UWF earns! The order deadline is November 25th, if you want to be able to mail them out to friends and relatives for holiday gift-giving.

Buying gift cards from over 700 retailers was never easier – the vendor list is a link on the UWF website (www.uwflagler.org) or click here:

https://shop.shopwithscrip.com/Shop/Product/Browse.

As a fundraiser for UWF, the club gets a rebate from each card of 2%-20%, depending on the vendor. Restaurants, department and discount stores, airlines, hotels, grocery stores, pharmacies and more are available for purchase. And here's a YouTube video to explain the concept and how easy it is to use:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BZNu-ftcPKo&feature=youtu.be

"This is seriously the best fundraiser. We use gift cards to buy groceries, get takeout, and put gas in the car. It's normal day-to-day stuff we're already buying—and we earn on it. " Scrip website

The order deadline this month is November 25th for Holiday Shopping. You can order from Lynn Foraker by email Lforaker84@hotmail.com or phone (386-309-0069) by the 25th of each month. Order information and checks must be received by the monthly deadline. This fundraiser is open to all UWF Members; for non-members, we strongly recommend that MEMBERS collect monies from friends and family and that the members write the checks to UWF for all orders.

You will be notified by email when cards arrive for pickup, distribution or delivery. They should arrive about a week after ordering. Several pick-up sites and times will be available. You can arrange to pick them up from Lynn Foraker or Donna Boggs. Delivery can be arranged, if necessary.

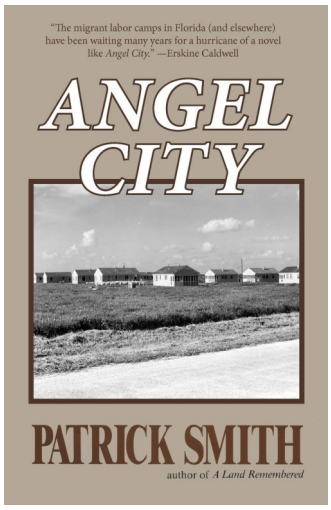
Bookminders: November's Book Selections



Angel City by Patrick Smith

After leaving their failed farm in West Virginia, Jared Teeter and his family make their way to Florida, with dreams of fishing, going to the beach, and running their own roadside produce stand. What they find instead is a nightmare in a migrant labor camp, where they become the indentured servants of a soulless crew chief and his mindless henchmen. Vacillating between hope and despair, Jared must stay alert—and alive—to rescue his own family and the prisoners around him from a life of continued degradation.

In the year before he wrote Angel City, Patrick Smith did what he called "physical research," disguising himself and joining migrant crews as they picked whatever vegetable was in season. He mentally recorded the events he encountered and wrote the novel in just a few weeks. His reason for writing Angel City? "The first step toward eliminating injustice is to expose it," he said. Angel City was made into a TV movie in 1980.

The Nickel Boys by Colson Whitehead

In this Pulitzer Prize-winning, New York Times bestselling follow-up to The Underground Railroad, Colson Whitehead brilliantly dramatizes another strand of American history through the story of two boys unjustly sentenced to a hellish reform school in Jim Crow-era Florida.

When Elwood Curtis, a black boy growing up in 1960s Tallahassee, is unfairly sentenced to a juvenile reformatory called the Nickel Academy, he finds himself trapped in a grotesque chamber of horrors. Elwood's only salvation is his friendship with fellow "delinquent" Turner, which deepens despite Turner's conviction that Elwood is hopelessly naive, that the world is crooked, and that the only way to survive is to scheme and avoid trouble. As life at the Academy becomes ever more perilous, the tension between Elwood's ideals and Turner's skepticism leads to a decision whose repercussions will echo down the decades.

Based on the real story of a reform school that operated for 111 years and warped the lives of thousands of children, The Nickel Boys is a devastating, driven narrative that showcases a great American novelist writing at the height of his powers and "should further cement Whitehead as one of his generation's best" (Entertainment Weekly).

Lunch Bunch: All Welcome!

Lunch at the beach!

November's Lunch Bunch is designed to get us out into the fresh breeze off the ocean!

We will meet at the new beach entry at the end of Bay Drive, the first road north of Sea Colony.

There is a covered pavilion with four tables affording ocean views and other comfort facilities next to the parking lot and walkover to the beach.

Join us Friday, November 20 at noon!

Please bring your own food and drink. A chair would be helpful should we decide to move, as other people may be occupying a table and we would like to keep to social distancing.

Kindly RSVP with Edda Steinmeier at eddausi2@aol.com or 386-237-7313. If I have a headcount, I will arrive early to try to reserve enough tables or we can set up close by.

I hope to see many of you before the Thanksgiving rush moves in.
