Dear Members and Friends,

University Women of Flagler is an organization dedicated to supporting the educational goals of women in Flagler County. What a worthy mission! We believe in it wholeheartedly and are proud to be part of the team! We are excited to serve as your co-presidents for the next two years.

I am Robin Hall (pictured on the right above), a retired higher education administrator with a doctorate in leadership that has helped me understand the importance of volunteerism. I was born in South Dakota and lived in Minnesota, Georgia, Arizona, and Florida during my university and professional endeavors. My husband Chuck and I have a blended family with four kids, multiple grandkids, and great grandkids. In fall 2016, we retired to Flagler Beach with goals to travel to all seven continents (completed) and to become involved in the community (ongoing). Trish LeNet invited me to my first UWF meeting and the rest is history. I'm thankful for Trish and proud to be part of this giving organization.

...And I am Trish Le Net, a retired educator who has taught junior high in Saudia Arabia, high school in Michigan, and at the Berlitz School of Language in Paris and in Brittany France where my late husband, Daniel, was from and where our two daughters, Edwina and Christine, were born. Daniel and I retired to Palm Coast in 2006. I joined UWF in 2011 when I heard about its mission of education and learning. Soon after joining, someone who shall remain nameless (Janice Nickol!) twisted my arm to take on the recording secretary position. I am grateful to her, because I have so enjoyed being part of the board of directors in various roles ever since! This is an amazing group of women who give of themselves in so many ways. I am honored to be Co-President with Robin. It takes all of us working together to achieve our goals!

The 2024-25 year is off to a busy start and we have some exciting changes to announce. Our general meetings have a new time and location. Our nine monthly luncheon meetings will start at 11:30am and will be held at the beautiful Grand Haven Golf Club. We appreciate everyone who attended the planning meeting on May 17 and who pitched in with great ideas for fundraising: TWO Day of Games events and a Mystery Dinner Theater, as well as obtaining more corporate sponsorships. During the meeting, teams volunteered to spearhead some of those events.

We are looking forward to working with the women of UWF in the coming two years. Please feel free to contact us with your ideas and suggestions.

With Friendship and Service,

Robin and Trish

Wreaths Across America

Every year the Wreaths Across America organization places holiday wreaths on the grave sites of every veteran buried in a National Cemetery. The wreaths are donated by individuals like yourselves who want to support our military veterans.

We have again set our UWF chapter up as a fundraising group with WAA. For every $17.00 wreath purchased by our members, their families and friends, we will have $5.00 returned to us. This is a simple fundraiser that supports our scholarship fund and allows us to do something good for our community. We will be supporting the National Cemetery in Jacksonville, where they will need 21,000 wreaths this year.

In early September, I will send out detailed instructions to everyone. This is an excellent opportunity for you to honor our veterans and benefit our chapter. The deadline for me to receive paper checks is November 16th. If you choose, you can contribute online at https://wreathsacrossamerica.org/FL0649P until December 3, 2024. Thank you for your support of this worthwhile project.

Recap from May 11th Scholarship Event

On Saturday, May 11th, UWF held our Annual Scholarship event as a breakfast at the Hilton Garden Inn in Palm Coast. The UWF Scholarship Committee was delighted to honor our scholarship recipients who had been notified just days earlier—on the evenings of May 7th and 8th.

The 2024 Scholarship recipients included: Anaiya Lalaram (Richard Dervan Scholarship), Sabrina Dasilva-Carvalheira, Leila Jackson (Gail Ross Scholarship) and Abigail Taylor, all of Flagler Palm Coast High School; and Ciara Smith of Matanzas High School. Then about a week later, Alena Nieves of Flagler Palm Coast High School was also honored as a 2024 recipient of the Clarence Brodnax Scholarship in honor of Rhenda Brodnax's husband. In the pictures below, the five recipients on May 1th were (L to R): Leila Jackson, Ciara Smith, Abigail Taylor, Sabrina Dasilva-Carvalheira, and Anaiya Lalaram. The lower pictures (L) include Alana Nieves being informed of the award by co-Presidents Robin Hall and Trish LeNet, and Treasurer Linda Jaeger; and in the picture to the right are four of the 2023 Scholarships recipients who returned to tell us how their Freshman year of college went. They are (L to R): Hailey Tucker, Katelyn Tefler, Christina Nguyen, and Lizelle Pear. We wish all of our wonderful recipients a successful year ahead!

Scholarship Recipients: A Little More...

UWF is so proud of the 2024 Scholarship recipients. Here's a little more about their high school years and where they plan to further their education:

Leila Jackson, Flagler Palm Coast High School: received the scholarship in memory of Gail Ross. Leila plans on going to Florida State University (FSU) with the goal of becoming a government official at the state or local level. While at FPC, she was President of SGA (Student Government Association). Her passion for service work started in second grade and continued throughout her high school years.

Anaiya Lalarem, Flagler Palm Coast High School: received the scholarship in memory of Richard Dervan. Anaiya, a former IB (International Baccalaureate) student at FPC, plans to follow the dentistry path and become an Orthodontist. While in high school, Anaiya volunteered at both the Grace Community Food Pantry and the Flagler County Free Clinic. She served as Vice President of FPC Red Cross and President of FPC Friends for All Abilities, a club that advocated for ESE students.

Sabrina DaSilva-Carvalheira, Flagler Palm Coast High School. The former Captain of the Girls Varsity Bowling Team at FPC, Sabrina was an IB student who hopes to be a pediatric/NICU Nurse and is furthering her studies at the University of Central Florida. One of the most important and influential volunteer experiences she had as a high school student was at the Palm Coast Portuguese American Cultural Center, prepping meals. There she learned old Portuguese recipes and songs important to her heritage.

Abigail Taylor, Flagler Palm Coast High School: Abigail will attend the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa to study Biological Engineering. Her goal is to develop methods for plant life to survive on various planets. While a student in Flagler Schools, Abigail co-founded SPARK (STEM Projects Advancing Real-world Knowledge), was president of the National Honor Society: 2022, as well as Secretary and Historian for the Student Government Association.

Alena Nieves received the scholarship in memory of Clarence W. Brodnax. She graduated from Flagler Palm Coast High School and will attend the University of Florida this year.

Ciara Smith, Matanzas High School: Ciara completed her associate's degree from Daytona State while a student at MHS. She plans on majoring in biochemistry to begin a career as a biochemist and create her own lab studying the benefits of artificial micro-organisms. In high school, she was a member of the Health Occupations Students of America. In addition, she spent several months in 11th grade shadowing at the Radiology Department at Advent Health as well as being a volunteer at the Flagler Humane Society.

September Speaker: Samantha Adams
Flagler County Education Foundation

We are delighted to have Samantha Adams as our speaker at the first meeting of our new year. Samantha is the Assistant Director of Fund Development at the Flagler County Education Foundation, and works directly with the Executive Director Teresa Rizzo.

Mission & Vision: The Flagler County Education Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, committed to generating financial support and awareness to enhance educational programs that benefit students, families, and teachers in Flagler Schools. Our vision is that every student will have the same opportunity to reach his or her highest educational level in order to become a productive citizen, while also supporting teachers.

Samantha grew up in Northern Virginia but found her home in Florida when she attended Flagler College. With a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Exceptional Students Education, Samantha dedicated the first five years of her career to teaching, three of which were at Rymfire Elementary, where she also served as Dean of Students.

Samantha's journey led her to the Flagler County Education Foundation, where she continues to impact students, educators, and families throughout the county. With a 6-year-old daughter, Samantha understands the importance of community involvement and positive impact, both personally and professionally. She is delighted to play a role in creating positive changes in the county in which she resides.

Adventure Gals: Starting the Year off Strong...

Many plans are being made for this season's adventures. I won't be returning until November, so if you would like to organize any activities, please do. Once again, there will be a $5 scholarship donation for each adventure. Once you've paid $20, you are set for the year. Be sure to let me know if you sign up for any of the adventures, because many require you to obtain your own tickets. Looking forward to fun and fellowship,

Holly Flynn 518-269-5988 or hollyflynn424@gmail.com

This is what we have planned so far, and I appreciate suggestions:

Thursday, November 7th: We will tour the Stetson Mansion in Deland early this year because many leave the area for the holidays. USA Today named it the number one holiday home tour in Florida and number two in the country! For more information and to purchase tickets for the 11:30 self-guided tour on Nov. 7th go to www.stetsonmansion.com. The tickets are $35.68 including tax and booking fee. This is an encore presentation from last season. The owner/designer, JT Thompson, will no longer be decorating the mansion because of damage to his hands from the many years of working on the amazing displays. So, this is a last chance to see his amazing creativity. As we have in years past, we will enjoy a delicious lunch at Cooks Buffet, after the tour.

Saturday, November 9th: We will meet at the Florida Agricultural Museum, 7900 Old Kings Rd. N., to enjoy the Celebration of Arts Country Market at 10 AM. This is a free event celebrating music. Handcrafted items will be for sale. This market is held monthly on the second Saturday, and this will be the only event that will not conflict with our UWF meetings.

Save the dates for the following events, and I will let you know when tickets become available.

 Sunday, December 8th from noon to 5 PM…will be the Saint Augustine Garden Club's annual Tour of Homes and Tea. Tickets at www.gardenclubofstaugustine.org are $45 and will become available on October 1. This popular event sells out quickly. This year's holiday tour is a walking tour near Flagler College of historic homes decorated with live decor designed by the Garden Club of Saint Augustine. A shuttle will take you to the River House, 179 River St., for the tea, raffle and boutique.

 Sunday, December 15th from 1 to 5pm. The Saint Augustine Bed-and-Breakfast Holiday Tour returns for 2024. Seven beautifully decorated inns will be displayed on this holiday tour. The theme will be Ugly Christmas sweaters, which they invite you to wear. In addition to the inns on tour, they are planning a delicious food feature from 11 AM to 6 PM at a central location. Details will follow.

 There are still a few tickets available for the five-night bus tour by Diamond Tours to Asheville and the Biltmore on December 1st-6th for $820/per person/double occupancy. A $75 deposit will hold a seat, and the balance is due on September 24th. There is an additional charge of $32.50 to view the Chihuly exhibit. The pickup will be on Rt 100 at the Winn-Dixie Plaza at 9:45am on Sunday, December 1st. Contact Holly for more details if you're interested in joining her.

Looking forward to some great adventures,

September Book Selection

September's Book Selection: After Annie

By Anna Quindlen

NEW YORK TIMES* BESTSELLER • "Part of Quindlen's gift is that you don't just read about these characters, you inhabit them. . . . Luminous with life, hope and the power of love."—People (A Book of the Week Pick)

"[A] quietly revelatory and gently gleaming gem of a book."—The New York Times Book Review (Editors' Choice)

Anna Quindlen's trademark wisdom on family, friendship, and the ties that bind us are at the center of this novel about the power of love to transcend loss and triumph over adversity, by the author of Still Life with Bread Crumbs and One True Thing.

When Annie Brown dies suddenly, her husband, her children, and her closest friend are left to find a way forward without the woman who has been the lynchpin of all their lives. Bill is overwhelmed without his beloved wife, and Annemarie wrestles with the bad habits her best friend had helped her overcome. And Ali, the eldest of Annie's children, has to grow up overnight, to care for her younger brothers and even her father and to puzzle out for herself many of the mysteries of adult life.

Over the course of the next year what saves them all is Annie, ever-present in their minds, loving but not sentimental, caring but nobody's fool, a voice in their heads that is funny and sharp and remarkably clear. The power she has given to those who loved her is the power to go on without her. The lesson they learn is that no one beloved is ever truly gone.

Written in Quindlen's emotionally resonant voice and with her deep and generous understanding of people, After Annie is about hope, and about the unexpected power of adversity to change us in profound and indelible ways.
