Dear UWF Members,

If you were not able to attend the Fabulous Fashion Show, you missed an afternoon of fun, laughs, good music, great food, and good times with friends and fellow members. We had another sell out event (130 tickets were sold) on March 30th; our hats are off to Barbara Holley and her Committee. Everyone worked tirelessly to put this show on, and did they ever put on a show!!

Feedback from several members and their guests was that it was the most fun of any Fashion Show they had ever attended. Many thanks to our own models who all looked beautiful and made the most of their moments on stage. Please take advantage of the 10% coupon given by Chez Jacqueline, and have a fashion make over in the store with Shara. She will have you in something you never thought you could wear, accented with the most unique and unusual accessories.

To our surprise, if it wasn't enough to enjoy the fashions on display, the food, and mimosas, we had male models hamming it up with their own sense of fashion style and humor. A big thank you to my partner Janice for her emcee duties and her introduction of the male models. Her humor and comments added to the fun.

At this time, with not all of the proceeds officially tallied, we believe we raised enough funds for one scholarship.

Our year is winding down but not yet over. Please register for our April 13th meeting and remember our scholarship luncheon on May 18th as well. This is what we work hard for all year long, so don't miss it. Please RSVP by April 8th to Karen Wolford for April's meeting.

Membership dues are currently due @$35; please bring your check, made out to UWF, to the April meeting.

We are again participating in the Belk Charity Sale for the spring. So far this year we have added $915.00 to our Scholarship fund from this endeavor. Volunteers are needed to purchase and sell tickets to the event during the last 2 weeks of April. All proceeds from these ticket sales stay with us and the purchaser gets $5.00 off their first purchase on May 4th. It is a win-win for all. Contact Pat Cotton to participate and help. Pat will have the Charity $5.00 ticket for sale at our April meeting.

One person who needs mentioning is Diane Layng whose passion was the Fashion Show Fundraiser. We know she was shining down on Barbara and her committee and supporting them in spirit!

Yours in friendship and purpose,

Janice and Pat

The meeting was called to order by Janice Nickol at 9:15am. The group said the Pledge of Allegiance and then had a moment of silence for military and first responders as well as members and close family who are ill.

Rhenda Brodnax gave an inspirational talk about Spring and ended with a poem by Maya Angelou.

Trish LeNet, Membership Co-chair, reported that there are currently 89 members. A new member, Kathy Donovan, introduced herself and told about her life. Trish also told of her experiences trying to recruit new members at the Flagler Beach First Friday event earlier this month. She plans to continue attending these events in future months in an effort to acquaint the community with our association. Also, a breakfast for mentors and new members is planned for October.

The Treasurer's Report was posted in the Wave. A motion was made and seconded to approve the report. The report was accepted by a vote.

The minutes of the February general meeting was posted in the Wave. A motion was made and seconded to approve the minutes. The minutes were accepted by a vote.

Breakfast was served at the tables.

Speaker- Catherine Seidle, a nurse practitioner who specializes in functional medicine, was introduced by Karen Flaherty. Mrs. Seidle works in Dr. Toppi's office. She told how her method is to find the root of an individual's disease rather than the standard practice of just prescribing drugs for patients. She also spoke of taking numerous tests to diagnose patients' illnesses.

Fashion Show- Barbara Holley, Fashion Show chairman, told the group that most of the tickets to the March 30th event have been sold. She also told that vendors would sell their products at the event and that there would be a mimosa toast for guests.

Nominating Committee- Trish LeNet gave the slate of candidates for next year. They are: President Elect- Linda Jaeger, Corresponding Secretary- Mavis Smith, Treasurer- Toni Donohue, Assistant Treasurer- Rosemary Zattiero, Program Co-chairs - Susan Moya and Bettie Eubanks, and Scholarship Chair- Susan Waller. A vote will be taken at the April General Meeting.

Louel Larkin introduced a Change Jar for Helping Hands. She used the jar to collect funds for the Helping Hands program at Daytona State college. That program gives assistance to students at the college who need temporary help to attend classes.

A survey of programs presented at general meetings was left on the tables for the members to rate recent programs and make suggestions for future programs.

A motion to adjourn was made at 10:55am.

Respectfully submitted,
Josephine Dervan, Co-Recording Secretary

Women's Educational Support

Help fill UWF's Change Jar for Helping Hands. Bring your loose change to the next meeting and help women at DSC who need assistance so that they can pursue their degrees.

Spotlight on New Members Kathy Donovan and Pat Malak

Kathy Donovan is one of our newest members and we wanted to take this opportunity to introduce Kathy to you. She was born and grew up in Queens, New York. Kathy graduated high school from Mater Christi in Astoria, New York; then graduated with her Bachelor and Master degrees from CCNY (a first in her family to graduate with a degree!).

Kathy worked as a speech pathologist for most of her career in roles of a direct caregiver and then in various management positions. Kathy also had an opportunity to assist in building an optometric business venture in New York as the office manager before she retired. For over 30 years, she was involved and sat on the Board of Directors for her NY co-op apartment complex.

After retirement, she visited a friend in Palm Coast, and after several visits to Palm Coast was introduced to the Grand Haven gated community; she felt that it offered many activities & shared a sense of community, so she decided to move from New York about 4 years ago. Kathy is an avid reader, enjoys shopping, dancing and Tai Chi; she is also an active member of GHWC & their fundraising committee's activities.

Sheila Platt, recording secretary, has volunteered to serve as Kathy's mentor for next few months in order to provide the transitional bridge into the UWF organization. Please be sure to say hello to Kathy when you see her at our meetings, and we believe that she will be an asset to our organization!

Pat Malak attended the March UWF breakfast meeting and decided to join our organization that morning! Pat was born in Wisconsin, graduated high school, and then attended the University of Wisconsin completing her Bachelor of Science in Sociology. Once Pat graduated, she then decided to move to Denver, Colorado where she began working for the Colorado Criminal Justice Department developing grant programs and serving as a financial counselor (she had earned her CPA). During that time, she wanted to further her education and began attending the University of Colorado where she received her Masters in Public Administration.

Pat was offered a position and moved to Washington, DC where she worked in the Department of Justice focusing on grants for the criminal system at state and local levels. Following 9/11, she then was offered, and accepted, a position in the newly developed Homeland Security Division working at local, state and federal levels.

When Pat decided to retire, she explored the east coast, all along the South Carolina shoreline down to Florida. After often visiting friends in Palm Coast, Pat settled into the Grand Haven community in 2008. Pat enjoys reading, water aerobics, Mah-jongg, bridge, movies and the theater; she is also an active member of GHWC and volunteers in the Helping Hands Program. In addition, Pat is an avid traveler who has visited over 100 countries, and has several more trips planned for this coming year!

Sheila Platt, Recording Secretary, has also volunteered to serve as Pat's mentor (along with being Kathy Donovan's mentor!) for the next few months. Please welcome Pat into UWF when you see her at the April meeting. We are so happy that she decided to join our organization and know she will be an active member.

Spotlight on New Member Peggy Hengeveld

Peggy Hengeveld was born and raised in Lebanon, PA. She attended and graduated from the Reading Hospital School of Nursing, Lebanon Valley College with a BS in Health Care Management and then went on to earn her MS in Health Care Management from the University of St Francis. In addition, Peggy earned a MS in Strategic Studies from the United States Army War College and undertook doctoral studies in health care management at the University of Phoenix.

After working in CCU and ICU as a staff nurse and manager, Peggy changed her career path to Occupational Health and Safety working at Three Mile Island Nuclear Generating Station as Director of Occupational Health and later for the Department of Defense as a Supervisor of Safety and Occupational Health at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation supporting Pennsylvania Air and Army National Guard employees. Along the way, Peggy also served as a US Army Nurse.

Peggy continues to be involved in the health care profession; she currently volunteers at the Flagler Free Clinic as a registered nurse and serves as President of the board for the clinic. Taking a different path, she also volunteers as an AARP tax aide scheduler during tax season.

Traveling, playing golf, reading and volunteering are her passions. Peggy is married to Cecil Hengeveld with whom she has 5 children, 12 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren.

At the last several General Meetings, requests have been made for your input. Since we realize that not all members attend these meetings, we are also using The Wave to reach you.

Do you have questions, comments, concerns or suggestions for the UWF Board? Our Vice Presidents for Programs are seeking your input. They would like to include programs and speakers of interest to the UWF membership. Please contact them with your thoughts.

Do you have suggestions for building our membership and/or retaining members? Our Vice Presidents for Membership are also seeking your ideas.

Be involved....Attend a meeting or an event....Join an Interest Group....Volunteer for a committee. Your Board would like to get to know you!! Participate and get to know your fellow members!!!

April's Book Selection:

Barracoon: The Story of the Last Black Cargo

In 1927, Zora Neale Hurston went to Plateau, Alabama, just outside Mobile, to interview eighty-six-year-old Cudjo Lewis. Of the millions of men, women, and children transported from Africa to America as slaves, Cudjo was then the only person alive to tell the story of this integral part of the nation's history. Hurston was there to record Cudjo's firsthand account of the raid that led to his capture and bondage fifty years after the Atlantic slave trade was outlawed in the United States.

In 1931, Hurston returned to Plateau, the African-centric community three miles from Mobile founded by Cudjo and other former slaves from his ship. Spending more than three months there, she talked in depth with Cudjo about the details of his life. During those weeks, the young writer and the elderly formerly enslaved man ate peaches and watermelon that grew in the backyard and talked about Cudjo's past—memories from his childhood in Africa, the horrors of being captured and held in a barracoon for selection by American slavers, the harrowing experience of the Middle Passage packed with more than 100 other souls aboard the Clotilda, and the years he spent in slavery until the end of the Civil War.

Based on those interviews, featuring Cudjo's unique vernacular, and written from Hurston's perspective with the compassion and singular style that have made her one of the preeminent American authors of the twentieth-century, Barracoon masterfully illustrates the tragedy of slavery and of one life forever defined by it. Offering insight into the pernicious legacy that continues to haunt us all, black and white, this poignant and powerful work is an invaluable contribution to our shared history and culture.

Play Girls Theater Group

The next planned Playgirls event, Dames at Sea has been replaced by TICK TOCK BOOM!! at CRT. Our tickets for Dames at Sea have been replaced with tickets for TICK TOCK BOOM!!

Play: TICK TICK BOOM!

Where: City Repertory Theater, 160 Cypress Point Pkwy, Palm Coast

Date: Sunday, April 7, 2019 at 3:00pm

Tickets: $28.00 (including $5.00 for scholarship fund)

Dinner : 6:00 at Carrabbas, 160 Cypress Edge (next to Walmart)

The theater had to change the play because the leads in Dames at Sea took off for another opportunity. TICK TICK BOOM! is an Obie-winning musical which chronicles the adventures of Jonathan Larson, the creator of RENT, as he navigates the treacherous waters of New York's young and vibrant arts scene. On the bright side, it is soon to be a movie produced by Ron Howard and directed by Linn-Manuel Miranda ("Hamilton"), so it should be good.

Let's finish the season in STYLE. Ronaele has reserved 20 seats for the Musical, KINKY BOOTS at the Peabody in Daytona Beach for Tuesday, May 14th at 7:30pm.

Play: Kinky Boots

Where: Peabody Auditorium, Daytona Beach

Date: Tuesday, May 14, 2019 at 7:30 pm

Tickets: $45.00 (including $5 for the Scholarship fund)

Dinner: 5:15 pm at Bonefish Grill in Daytona Beach.

Kinky Boots is about a man who is struggling to keep his family shoe business when the performer Lola arrives needing stilettos. The music was written by Cindy Lauper and the play is still showing on Broadway.

If you are interested in this final selection for the season, please contact Ronaele at 386-627-8033 or send a check for $45 made out to Ronaele Bowman and mail to P.O. Box 353602, Palm Coast 32135.
