From the President

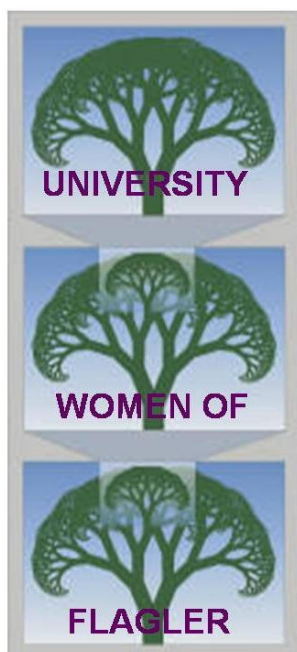

Where has the summer gone? Can you believe fall is just around the corner?! Hopefully you enjoyed your break and are ready for another exciting year with UWF. I know I am! The executive board met this summer and we have some interesting things planned for the year ahead.

An update:

Our "non-traditional student" scholarship committee, chaired by Jane Mealy, met this summer. The Committee met with several people from various organizations to determine the areas of need and how best to help women trying to further their education. Our hope is that we will be ready to provide support to our first student before the end of the upcoming UWF year.

Barbara Holley

Mark your calendars:

Our first full membership meeting will take place on Saturday, September 16th at the Hilton Garden Inn. The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m., but please join us early, at 8:30 a.m., for fellowship and conversation. Our first speaker will be Palm Coast City's Mayor, Milissa Holland. She will give us an update on what's happening now as well as some insight into plans for Palm Coast's future. We are looking forward to welcoming Mayor Holland to our first meeting.

Two of our groups, Book Minders and Lunch Bunch, will meet before our first general meeting. The first Book Minders meeting will be held at the home of the chairperson, Jane Mealy on September 11th. Our September book is "The Minorcan Yoke" by Nancy Pellicer Dyer. Lunch Bunch, chaired by Edda Steinmeier, has made their schedule for the year. Beverly Fox will host the first lunch at her home on September 15th. Please contact the chairperson if you are interested in being a part of either of these groups.

Ronaele Bowman, chairperson for "Play Girls" scheduled our first play of the season. We will see, Evita, at the Flagler Playhouse in Bunnell on September 29th. The group will dine at Terranova's prior to the show. Twenty-one people signed up for this fun evening.

Thanks to Karen Flaherty and Pat Rhodes for chairing our "Day of Games" event. As you know, this is one of our signature events and a major fundraiser for us. This year's event is scheduled for October 27th at 10 a.m. at the Flagler Beach Woman's Club. We have done this event for several years so we know what is needed to be successful. We need all of the usual things: homemade lasagna, door prizes, baked goods, ticket sales and lots of volunteers. Please call Karen or Pat today and let them know what you can do to help!

As you can see we have some exciting things planned. And there will be many more interesting things scheduled for the months ahead. I encourage you to stay informed and stay involved. With your support and participation, we will have another great year.

Welcome to the 2017-2018 UWF year! I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Barbara Holley, Ed.D.
President

September Speaker

Milissa Holland was elected Palm Coast Mayor in November 2016. She is just the third Mayor in Palm Coast's history and the first woman Mayor. Her father, the late James Holland, was a member of the inaugural Palm Coast City Council. Born in Poughkeepsie, New York, Mayor Holland moved to Palm Coast with her family in 1987 when she was a teenager. She has lived and worked here her entire adult life and has three adult children.

Mayor Holland served six years as a Flagler County Commissioner, from 2006 to 2012, and was the first woman County Commissioner. She was selected as Chair in 2008, and the County adopted its Strategic Plan during her term as Chair. She was a member of the Flagler County Future Committee to re-write the County's Comprehensive Plan and was the County's representative to numerous local and regional agencies.

Mayor Holland is on the Board of Directors of the prestigious organization 1000 Friends of Florida, which promotes healthy urban and natural places by wise management of growth change. She also founded the James F. Holland Foundation, named for her father, which raises money and initiates programs that benefit the children and youth of Flagler County through the formation of partnerships with local, state and national agencies and organizations. She spearheaded the annual "Feed Flagler" initiative that provides free Thanksgiving dinners for thousands of residents each year, and is a member of the Palm Coast Elks Lodge 2709.

May 20, 2017 General Membership Meeting

The final meeting of the 2016-2017 season of UWF was held at the Hilton Garden Inn and was called to order at 11:00 AM by President Barbara Holley, who led the membership in the Pledge of Allegiance and moment of silence for our troops and first responders.

Rhenda Brodnax shared an inspirational reading on the value of a positive attitude.

Scholarships

Barbara reiterated that the mission of UWF over the past ten years has been raising funds for scholarships for young women. Susan Slater then named this year's recipients and their colleges of choice:

Abby Duquette, Wake Forest University
Cassandra Gubala, Nova Southeastern University
Elizabeth Kirkconnell, University of North Florida
Micayla Lavaglio, Florida State University
Krishna Edlene Louis, University of Miami
Ivana Celeste Moore, Columbia University

Susan also re-introduced the membership to last year's winners:
Emily Bell, Taylor Garman, Athena Gonzalez, Amanda Hok, and Najare Johnson.
Each spoke of their experiences during their first year of college.

Maralee Walsh-Daniels read letters from the scholarship winners who were not able to attend today's luncheon. Each of this year's recipients then introduced herself to members. Maralee thanked the scholarship committee for their efforts in selecting such an impressive group of young women.

Business

When the meeting resumed after lunch, last month's minutes and treasurer's report were unanimously approved.

Jane Mealy reviewed changes made to the by-laws and UWF policies. Members unanimously accepted the revisions.

Jane also asked members for suggestions for trips for next year.

Barbara reminded members that 2017-2018 dues should have been paid by today.

Jean Hunter lead the installation of new officers.

Announcements

Connie Norris announced that there would be a memorial mass for Florence Knox on July 24 at 8:30 AM at St. Elizabeth Seton Church.

Closing

Barbara concluded the meeting with warm wishes to everyone for a happy summer.
The meeting was adjourned at 1:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Sheila Platt
Substitute Recording Secretary

Bookminders: September Selection

Just south of America's oldest permanent city, St. Augustine, Florida, lie the ruins of the largest colony the English attempted to establish in the New World. New Smyrna was established in 1768 by 1,400 indentured servants; immigrating from the Mediterranean countries of Italy, Greece and the Balearic island of Minorca. Their nine turbulent year odyssey under English domination and servitude was a struggle to survive against tremendous odds.

Upon receiving a land grant in the newly acquired Florida territory, Scottish Doctor Andrew Turnbull sets out to recruit indentured servants from hardy Mediterranean stock. The doctor finds few takers and much resistance filling his quota of 500 immigrants. With Minorca set as the disembark point, Dr. Turnbull arrives disappointed in his efforts knowing he is far short of his desired number of bondsmen and expenses are mounting. Fortunately the doctor finds many of the local population willing to join his adventure and the Minorcans quickly swell the ranks.

Upon arriving in New Smyrna, Florida, the immigrants find life not as it was promised. They endure nine years of brutality, starvation, domination, love, marriage, rivalry, pirates, rebellion, hangings, murder, deadly weather, diseases and death. Through the hardships, more than half of the colonists perish. The 600 remaining souls would find their savior in carpenter Don Francisco Pellicer when he risks his life by escaping to seek help from the governor in St. Augustine. He then returns to the colony to lead his people to freedom.

Special note for the DAY OF GAMES:

PRESS YOUR JEANS! DUST OFF YOUR BOOTS!

It's official. Craig Johnson of Longmire fame will be our guest at the Hilton Garden Inn on Friday, February 2, 2018 for a "meet the author" book signing from 3 -6 pm and then at the Florida Ag Museum on Saturday, February 3, 2018, there will be an interview with Craig, a good ol' Southwest Chuck Wagon dinner (think smoker/pit pork), a western band AND a few lessons in line-dancing! Arrive around 5 pm to check out the area and reach the barn in time for dinner bell at 6 pm.

The University Women of Flagler (UWF) was founded in June 2006. The purpose of UWF is to unite graduates of regionally accredited educational institutions in order to promote equity, education, intellectual growth, individual worth, and development of opportunities for women and girls in the Flagler County area. UWF promotes positive societal change in the community; participates in the development and promotion of policies and programs through study, action, and public policy advocacy in areas related to its purpose, including community, cultural interests, and the maintenance of high standards in education; and maintains a fund for the purpose of rendering assistance, giving support, and providing funds for litigation to Flagler County area women whose civil liberties are threatened, infringed, or violated.

The Wave is the official newsletter of the University Women of Flagler.
