From the President

Hello Everyone,

What a wonderful time of the year - the holiday season is here! The days are shorter and yet our lives are busier. I love this time of the year and I hope you are enjoying the holiday season! As I have said before, during the holidays people are more thoughtful, more generous and more loving toward one another - attributes I think our group works to express year-round.

We always have wonderful activities planned each month and this month is no exception. We have fun, educational and inspirational things happening in December. On the fourth of this month the Gourmet Gals will finally (canceled twice because of the hurricanes) get to tour the Whitney Labs arranged for us by Jane Mealy. Whitney Laboratory for Marine Bioscience is a full-time University of Florida research center for biomedical research and biotechnology. The lab is dedicated to using marine model animals for studying problems in biology and applying that knowledge to issues of human health and the environment. This is fascinating subject matter and it will be interesting to learn more about the research being done right here in our own community. Afterwards, we will dine at Captain's BBQ nestled along the intra-coastal waterways to discuss our tour.

Our Bookminders will meet at the home of Rhenda Brodnax on December 11th to discuss the book Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult. The lunch bunch will dine at the home of Susan Moya on December 15th. What a festive time that will be!

Ronaele Bowman has arranged for the "Playgirls" group to see Fool for Love, a drama written by Pulitzer Prize winning playwright, Sam Shepard, performed at the Limelight Theater in Saint Augustine. The play is Thursday, January 18th but you need to reserve your spot with Ronaele by December 15th if you want to go with the group. We will have dinner at The Purple Olive before the show.

This month's meeting will be our annual holiday luncheon. It will take place on December 9th and will begin at 11:00 a.m. (10:30 for coffee and conversation) at the Hilton. Music will be provided by Flagler Palm Coast High School's, Formality Singers. This promises to be an entertaining event! Our December program is always a lot of fun as we listen to a live music performance and reflect on the holiday season. If you have not done so, make your reservations soon! Don't forget to include your meal choice of a traditional holiday dinner of turkey and dressing, or eggplant parmesan. Please call Karen Wolford (386) 864-8691 soon to make your reservation.

We have begun to sell tickets for our main fundraising event – Meet Craig Johnson, creator of the Longmire Series on NETFLIX and a New York Times best-selling author. The event will be held at the Florida Agriculture Museum Saturday, February 3, 2018, beginning at 12:00 noon. To purchase your ticket, go to <https://longmire.eventbrite.com>. Be sure to share this information with your family and friends.

As we close out the year, I want to wish each of you a wonderful holiday season! May your Christmas, Hanukah, or Kwanza be filled with love, joy and may you all have a healthy and happy new year!

Sincerely,

Barbara C. Holley, Ed.D.
President

December's Holiday Music:

On Saturday, December 9, 2017, UWF will hold its annual holiday luncheon. We will be entertained by the Formality Singers of the Flagler Palm Coast High School.

The Formality Singers is truly an organization with a heritage. It has a bright future and a storied past. The name "Formality Singers" was created 20 years ago for the specific purpose of defining excellence in high school choral music by Alana Fitzgerald, the school's founding choral director.

The Formality Singers believe, "FORMALITY IS NOT JUST A NAME, BUT A STANDARD TO WHICH WE PERFORM AND AN EXPECTATION OF EXCELLENCE THAT WE HAVE FOR OURSELVES IN ALL AREAS. This includes how we work together and how we present ourselves to the school and community. A journey of musical growth and personal development."

The current director of Formality Singers is Amelia Fulmer and the 2017-18 season will be her 15th year of leading The Formality Singers.

Amelia has spent her career in Flagler Schools and she has a broad perspective on vocal development and music education.

November 18, 2017 General Membership Meeting

President Barbara Holley welcomed members and guests and called the meeting to order at 9:05 AM. The Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence to honor our military and first responders followed.

The inspirational message was delivered by Donna Settles.

Donna Daly Boggs announced two new members, Kathy Robison and Joanne Mason, who each introduced themselves to the group. Our membership total is now 100.

Dr. Leila Hardison introduced our speaker, Dr. Jacqueline M Bernard of Radiology Associates Imaging. Dr. Bernard spoke specifically about breast imaging. She reviewed the history of various procedures, and emphasized the value of mammograms. She described the 3-D mammogram. She also spoke of the difference between a screening mammogram and a diagnostic one, and explained and emphasized the need for compression. After her comprehensive presentation, the doctor answered questions from the members on many areas of breast screening.

Business

Barbara asked if the treasurer's report and minutes of the last meeting had been reviewed by the members in the WAVE. It was moved and seconded that these reports be accepted.

Committee Reports

Bookbinders will meet on December 11th at the home of Rhenda Brodnax to discuss Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult.

Gourmet Gals will tour the Whitney Lab for Marine Bioscience on December 4. Lunch will follow at Captain's Barbeque. The cost is $25.00.

The next Play Girls event will occur January 15th at the Limelight Theater in St. Augustine.

The Lunch Bunch will meet at Susie Moya's home on December 15th.

Susan Slater updated the membership on the progress of the Craig Johnson day on February 3. Tickets are $65.00 and are available now.

Our next meeting will be a Christmas luncheon on December 9th, which will begin at 11:00 A.M. Meal choices are turkey or eggplant parmesan.

Barbara thanked Karen Flaherty and Pat Rhodes for their successful leadership of the Day of Games. Karen reported that $2835 was earned by that event.

Barbara reported that Jo Dervan's family had donated a scholarship to the organization.

The 50/50 drawings were won by Dawn Piers and Carol Hertle.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:00 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Sheila Platt

Bookminders: December Selection

Ruth Jefferson is a labor and delivery nurse at a Connecticut hospital with more than twenty years' experience. During her shift, Ruth begins a routine checkup on a newborn, only to be told a few minutes later that she's been reassigned to another patient. The parents are white supremacists and don't want Ruth, who is African American, to touch their child. The hospital complies with their request, but the next day, the baby goes into cardiac distress while Ruth is alone in the nursery. Does she obey orders or does she intervene?

Ruth hesitates before performing CPR and, as a result, is charged with a serious crime. Kennedy McQuarrie, a white public defender, takes her case but gives unexpected advice: Kennedy insists that mentioning race in the courtroom is not a winning strategy. Conflicted by Kennedy's counsel, Ruth tries to keep life as normal as possible for her family—especially her teenage son—as the case becomes a media sensation. As the trial moves forward, Ruth and Kennedy must gain each other's trust, and come to see that what they've been taught their whole lives about others—and themselves—might be wrong.

With incredible empathy, intelligence, and candor, Jodi Picoult tackles race, privilege, prejudice, justice, and compassion—and doesn't offer easy answers. Small Great Things is a remarkable achievement from a writer at the top of her game.

Smile.Amazon.com for our Scholarship Fund

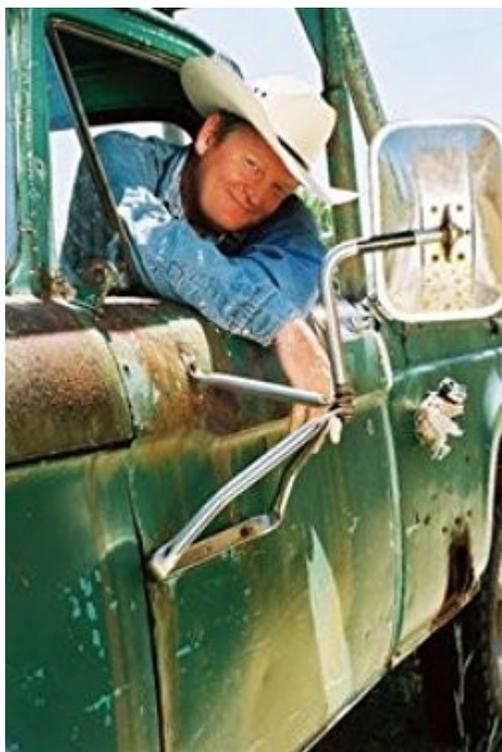

From now on, after you register, when you go to smile.amazon.com 0.5% of all your purchases will be going to the UWF Scholarship fund. All you have to do is go to Smile.Amazon.com, enter University Women of Flagler in the rectangular white box. You only have to do this once. Then every time you go to smile.amazon.com, it will remember you and you will see Supporting University Women of Flagler in the upper left corner to remind you that a portion of your purchases will be rebated to UWF. The University Women of Flagler (UWF) was founded in June 2006. The purpose of UWF is to unite graduates of regionally accredited educational institutions in order to promote equity, education, intellectual growth, individual worth, and development of opportunities for women and girls in the Flagler County area. UWF promotes positive societal change in the community; participates in the development and promotion of policies and programs through study, action, and public policy advocacy in areas related to its purpose, including community, cultural interests, and the maintenance of high standards in education; and maintains a fund for the purpose of rendering assistance, giving support, and providing funds for litigation to Flagler County area women whose civil liberties are threatened, infringed, or violated.

The Wave is the official newsletter of the University Women of Flagler.
