From the Presidents

Dear UWF Members:

We hope that your holiday season thus far has been filled with laughter, friends and family gatherings. Each of your hearts should be filled with joy, knowing that

Pat Cotton

Janice Nickol

From the Presidents

throughout the year, the gifts you give of your time, talent, and pocketbook, help support women in our community with an education they may not have been able to achieve. Let's all remember to be kind to one another, and remember the reason for the season.

As we close this year, I hope you can come to our Holiday Luncheon, and share a great meal, and holiday music favorites together. Fun time and memories for all... cherish it. As the holidays can bring great joy, so can it can bring sorrow. Please take a quiet moment to remember those who are no longer with us from our UWF family, and our own families. They are always here in spirit.

Quickly approaching is our January City Repertory Theater event and the "Once Upon a Time" Auction with your favorite Auctioneer, Janice.

If you have not yet purchased your tickets for the City Repertory Theater (Thursday January 10th 7:30PM and Saturday January 12th 2:00PM), please be ready to do so at the December meeting or contact Louel. The tickets are only $35, and we only need to sell 50 tickets per show, so we can do this! Let's get behind Edda with donations of wine, chocolate and items for the Silent Auction (jewelry and other items popular with women). Bring all donations to the December 15th meeting. If you want tickets to sell please see Edda or Louel.

Wishing you the very best of the Holiday Season.

Yours in Service,
Janice and Pat

Women's Educational Support

University Women of Flagler have expanded our support to Flagler County women who are working towards degrees at Daytona State College. The Daytona State College Foundation runs the Helping Hands Program which seeks finances in our communities for their work. We have agreed to send The Foundation $1,200 a year. A woman who needs a little bit of help for gas, food, bus fare, etc. may request help to balance out her budget so that she may continue in school. Helping Hands assesses the need and determines if a student qualifies for the aid. No stipend is to be greater than $100/semester.

UWF has received several donations to help start this stipend. In addition, we will utilize UWF's portion of the 50/50 and a Spare Change Jar at the General Meetings to fund our pledge to The Foundation. Please donate whatever you can so that we are able to service women residing in Flagler County who have sought to advance their education through non-traditional paths.

The Time Is Now Get Your Tickets for UWF's Special Performances of The Women

Please join us for our 2nd major fundraiser for scholarships! UWF has booked two exclusive performances of The Women by Claire Boothe Luce at the City Repertory Theater in Palm Coast.

You can choose either:

Opening Night on January 10, 2019 or the matinee on January 12, 2019

At each performance we will offer:

- Death by Chocolate, featuring homemade goodies by our members
- Wine (donation appreciated)
- A Silent Auction with articles chosen to entice our membership:
jewelry - beauty - travel (a trip organized through RCI)
- A 50/50, the chance to win extra cash

All this for just $35.00

As there are only 50 seats available at each performance don't wait to secure your tickets!
Invite a friend or relative and make someone else happy!

Tickets will be available at UWF meetings or by contacting Louel at 445-4236 or kaimukilady@gmail.com

THE WOMEN, an all female 1935 classic, brings together a star-studded ensemble of 12 of CRT's best actresses. Every secret is laid bare in this no-holds bar struggle for social position, power and the "right man".

Donations Needed for January Fundraiser

Help us keep expenses to a minimum — please donate a bottle of wine (red or white) for the fundraiser, The Women. Mary DiStefano will be collecting these donations at the December 15th Luncheon.

If you have items to donate for the Silent Auction contact Nancy Smith Miller or Diane Parisi. Donations may also be brought to the December General Meeting. Some items that we have already received for the Silent Auction are jewelry, a handmade quilt, and an RCI excursion (you will have the choice of location and time based on their catalog). Do you have a favorite restaurant or salon that would provide us with a gift card? How about using the reward points you accumulate during your holiday shopping and use them to purchase a gift to donate?

Jane Mealy is looking for donations for the "Death by Chocolate" dessert table. She will have a sign-up sheet at the December General Meeting.

Please contact the above women if you can donate but will not be at the December 15th meeting.

November 17, 2018 Minutes

Hilton Garden Inn

Call to Order: The meeting was called to order at 9:15 AM by Co-President, Pat Cotton, followed by the Pledge to the Flag and a moment of silence for our troops and first responders.

Inspirational thoughts were provided by Co-President Janice Nickol.

Minutes and Treasurer's Report: The motions to accept both reports as they appeared in The Wave were accepted by the membership.

Membership: Joanne Mason thanked our members for accepting the new lottery seating policy.

Old Business:

Karen Flaherty asked members to complete the survey on the tables regarding reactions to the three (3) workshops conducted in October.

She thanked all who had helped with the Day of Games. 140 tickets were sold and the organization made $3035. Some of the leftover food was given to the nearby fire department. It was suggested that the ticket price be raised next year to $25.

Pat Cotton asked for new volunteers for the Scholarship committee. Jean Hunter has agreed to co-chair next year. Pat also said that we need a Publicity committee chair. The second round of the Belk sale netted us $370; Pat said that she would like to do it again in the spring.

Jane Mealy said that 19 members attended the Chez Jacqueline event and the organization made $300.

The next meeting of the Bookminders will occur on December 10th at Barbara Holley's home. The author under consideration will be Paula McLain and participants can read one or both of her novels: The Paris Wife or Love and Ruin.

Jane also urged members to donate chocolate goodies for the January fundraising event. She reminded members that 2018-2019 yearbook replacement pages are available and that new members can have their photos taken today.

Linda Jaeger spoke of the January fundraiser: a production of The Women at the City Repertory Theater. She asked for donations for the silent auction. These items can be brought to the December meeting. Louel is now selling tickets for this event.

Leila Hardison introduced today's speaker, Nancy Crouch, Executive Director of the Palm Coast Arts Foundation. Mrs. Crouch, in a talk labeled "The Impact of the Arts in Our Community," spoke with enthusiasm about the history and future of the PCAF.

Playgirls: Ronaele Bowman announced that the next play would be a production of Foxfire at the Limelight Theater in St. Augustine. Dinner would be at the Raintree Restaurant. Tickets are $20.

Janice Nickol urged the membership to attend our events to support our scholarships.

50/50 ($45 each) winners this week were Barbara Holley and Louel Larkin.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:05 AM.

Respectfully submitted,
Sheila Platt, Co-Recording Secretary

December's Holiday Entertainment

The Formality Singers is truly an organization with a heritage. It has a bright future and a storied past. The name "Formality Singers" was created 20 years ago for the specific purpose of defining excellence in high school choral music by Alana Fitzgerald, the school's founding choral director.

She started a small choir with a big vision. She built a choir program well known in the school and the community. A choir that received superior ratings. She strived for a choir that would be a cut above in musicianship, performance and character.

That remains its purpose and identity today. Singers of the future are the caretakers of that legacy.

Membership Report

Joanne Mason and Trish LeNet, Membership Co-Vice Presidents

If you have any changes to your contact information (name, address, telephone number, or email) please inform Donna Daly Boggs at djaymesd@earthlink.net.

Also, if you know anyone interested in joining UWF, invite her to accompany you to a general meeting.

Lottery Seating

The Membership committee again instituted Lottery Seating at the November General meeting and were pleased with the positive comments. We will again use this seating plan at the February, March and April meetings. Due to the special nature of the meetings in December, January and May we will dispense with lottery seating and instead utilize an open seating plan.

UWF Membership Committee Goals for 2018-2019

The goals of the UWF membership committee are to create a strong and vibrant membership experience for all new and present members by:

- Stressing the importance of the growth of UWF membership at each monthly meeting, and remembering, that membership is everyone’s responsibility
- Building effective communication efforts with new members, along with present members, through the use of a “lottery seating plan” at monthly meetings in order to enhance interpersonal experiences for all members
- Understanding the importance of new members being integrated into event planning activities or other group activities (i.e.: book club, lunch bunch, etc.) immediately upon joining UWF
- Developing a mentorship program for all new members in an effort to assimilate them more comfortably into the organization
- Understanding the importance of retaining present members through the use of feedback tools (one-on-one conversations, evaluation tools, etc.)
- Increasing membership through marketing of UWF by personally meeting with leaders within the community (education, hospital, etc.) and through follow up with “guests” who attended UWF meetings.

PLEASE CONTACT US WITH ANY IDEAS OR SUGGESTIONS TO ACHIEVE THE ABOVE MEMBERSHIP GOALS. WE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR FEEDBACK - THANKS MUCH!

Joanne & Trish

December's Book Selection

A deeply evocative story of ambition and betrayal, The Paris Wife captures the love affair between two unforgettable people: Ernest Hemingway and his wife Hadley.

Chicago, 1920: Hadley Richardson is a quiet twenty-eight-year-old who has all but given up on love and happiness—until she meets Ernest Hemingway. Following a whirlwind courtship and wedding, the pair set sail for Paris, where they become the golden couple in a lively and volatile group—the fabled “Lost Generation”—that includes Gertrude Stein, Ezra Pound, and F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Though deeply in love, the Hemingways are ill prepared for the hard-drinking, fast-living, and free-loving life of Jazz Age Paris. As Ernest struggles to find the voice that will earn him a place in history and pours himself into the novel that will become The Sun Also Rises, Hadley strives to hold on to her sense of self as her roles as wife, friend, and muse become more challenging. Eventually they find themselves facing the ultimate crisis of their marriage—a deception that will lead to the unraveling of everything they’ve fought so hard for.

A heartbreaking portrayal of love and torn loyalty, The Paris Wife is all the more poignant because we know that, in the end, Hemingway wrote that he would rather have died than fallen in love with anyone but Hadley.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • The bestselling author of The Paris Wife brings to life the story of Martha Gellhorn—a fiercely independent, ambitious woman ahead of her time, who would become one of the greatest war correspondents of the twentieth century.

In 1937, twenty-eight-year-old Martha Gellhorn travels alone to Madrid to report on the atrocities of the Spanish Civil War and becomes drawn to the stories of ordinary people caught in the devastating conflict. It’s her chance to prove herself a worthy journalist in a field dominated by men. There she also finds herself unexpectedly—and unwillingly—falling in love with Ernest Hemingway, a man on his way to becoming a legend.

On the eve of World War II, and set against the turbulent backdrops of Madrid and Cuba, Martha and Ernest’s relationship and careers ignite. But when Ernest publishes the biggest literary success of his career, For Whom the Bell Tolls, they are no longer equals, and Martha must forge a path as her own woman and writer.

The Women is a 1936 American play, a comedy of manners, by Clare Boothe Luce. It is billed as a commentary on the pampered lives and power struggles of various wealthy Manhattan socialites and up-and-comers and the gossip that propels and damages their relationships. While men frequently are the subject of their lively discussions and play an important role, they are strictly characters mentioned but never seen.

The University Women of Flagler (UWF) was founded in June 2006. The purpose of UWF is to unite graduates of regionally accredited educational institutions in order to promote equity, education, intellectual growth, individual worth, and development of opportunities for women and girls in the Flagler County area. UWF promotes positive societal change in the community; participates in the development and promotion of policies and programs through study, action, and public policy advocacy in areas related to its purpose, including community, cultural interests, and the maintenance of high standards in education; and maintains a fund for the purpose of rendering assistance, giving support, and providing funds for litigation to Flagler County area women whose civil liberties are threatened, infringed, or violated.

The Wave is the official newsletter of the University Women of Flagler.
